

Australians animals

In Australia live more than 140 species of animals such as kangaroos, koalas, and wombat. There are more than 55 species of kangaroos. You can see them in the country areas of Australia and Tasmania. They can jump over the street. The wallabies are very popular in the remote waste land of Australia. Koala is a very nice animal. The wombat is very difficult to find. The platypus is the most famous mammal in Australia, the Ornithorinch lives river banks. It's very shy he has a nice fur and it is very difficult to see it.

BIRDS

The big emu is very popular in Australia. There are many other species of birds such as lira birds, or the kookaburra, this is well known for having an hysterical laugh that sounds like a human voice.

REPTILES

Many poisonous snakes live in Australia, there is also the huge anaconda. There are many crocodiles, turtles, and lizards.

WATER ANIMALS

There are more than 4000 living sea creatures living in the great reef such as sharks, and whales.