

COUNTABLES AND UNCOUNTABLES

COUNTABLE NOUNS = have a singular form and a plural form.

book - books
apple - apples

UNCOUNTABLE NOUNS = have only a singular form.

sugar
milk advice information hair

	✓	✗	?
Cs.	a/an I have got a book. I need an umbrella.	a/an I haven't got a book. I don't need an umbrella.	a/an Have you got a book? Do you need an umbrella?
Cp.	some a lot of I've got some books. I need a lot of umbrellas. a few There are a few tomatoes.	any many I haven't got any books. I don't need many umbrellas.	any many Have you got any books? Do you need many umbrellas?
U	some a lot of I've got some sugar. I've got a lot of time. a little My teacher gives me a little homework.	any much I haven't got any sugar. I haven't got much time.	any much Have you got any sugar? Have you got much time?

✓ = affirmative form

✗ = negative form

? = interrogative form

.
Cs = countable singular

Cp = countable plural

U = uncountable

.
. .
. . .