

MIAMI

BY EDOARDO CENCIARINI

Miami is on the south-east coast of the USA.
It is a city in the United States of America with 430,332 inhabitants. It's the capital of Miami-Dade
County, Florida.

Miami is a major port city on the Atlantic coast of south Florida in the southeastern United States.

Geography

Miami and its suburbs are located on a broad plain between the Florida Everglades to the west and Biscayne Bay to the east, which also extends from Florida Bay north to Lake Okeechobee.

Miami has a rocky territory, beneath there is the aquifer of the Biscayne Aquifer, a natural underground freshwater spring that extends from the southern part of Palm Beach County to Florida Bay.

Miami is characterized by a tropical climate with particularly rainy summer due to thunderstorms and exposed at risk of hurricanes.

Destruction of Hurricane Andrew

What can you see in Miami ?

Coral Castle is an oolite limestone structure created by the Latvian American Edward Leedskalnin .The grounds of Coral Castle consist of 1,100 short tons of stones in the form of walls, carvings, furniture and a castle tower. Commonly believed to be made of coral, it is made of oolite, also known as oolitic limestone.

Matheson Hammock Park is a urban park in metropolitan Miami. The park surrounds the north and western ends of Fairchild Tropical Botanic Garden.

What can you see in Miami ?

Key Biscayne is an island located in Miami-Dade County, Florida, United States, between the Atlantic Ocean and Biscayne Bay. It is in the south of the barrier islands along the Atlantic coast of Florida, and it is in the south of Miami Beach and south-east of Miami. The key is connected to Miami via the Rickenbacker Causeway, originally built in 1947.

The northern portion of Key Biscayne is home to Crandon Park, a county park. The middle section of the island consists of the incorporated Village of Key Biscayne.

Bayfront Park is a public park in Downtown Miami, on Biscayne Bay.

Bayfront Park holds the city's annual "America's Birthday Bash" on Independence Day, which attracted over 60,000 visitors in 2011. The park also hosts the city's official New Year's Eve party that annually hosts over 70,000 visitors.

